

It is unnecessary to exempt those businesses that have had a working relationship with customers within the past 18 months. They can be reached by normal, specifically addressed e-mail or conventional mail. Thank you for considering my opinion.